LOMBARDI

Giusti Ranch

PINOT NOIR

2018

Founded in 2013, Tony & Christine Lombardi began a passion project that honors a rich family history of wine, food, and tradition. The winery crafts small lots of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from some of the finest vineyards in Sonoma County, where the Lombardi family has been since 1947. The Giusti Ranch Pinot Noir is the winery's second vineyard designate and comes from a farm originally founded by Angelo Giusti, Sr. in the 1870s, one of the first Italian immigrant families to settle in the Forestville region.

Giusti Ranch, once known as "La Colina" (The Hill), was founded by Angelo Giusti Sr. in the 1870s, and has made a significant impact on Sonoma County agriculture for over 140 years. The ranch has contributed their farming and services to different parts of the community with several crops over the last century, including olives, grapes, cherries, prunes, apples, and now back to grapes since 2000. This ranch is truly a Sonoma County treasure and we are fortunate to have access to a little fruit from this incredible vineyard.

AROMATICS

The 2018 Pinot Noir reveals enticing aromas of cinnamon, rich red and black berries, along with baked cherry pie.

ON THE PALATE

This fresh California Pinot is typical of the Russian River Valley appellation, and shows layered flavors of raspberry, black cherry and blackberry fruit compote. There is an intensity to this wine and it lingers in the mouth, even to the last sip.
